

Master of Arts in History Course Rotation – Subject to Change

Online Rotation

	Course No.	Course Title	Fall 2017	Winter 2017	Spring 2018	Summer 2018	Fall 2018
CORE	HIST 5100	Comprehensive Examination	X	X	X	X	X
	HIST 5301	Historical Methods *			X
	HIST 5302	Historiography*	X				X
CONTENT COURSES	HIST/RLGN 5306	The Intertestamental Period			X
	HIST/RLGN 5307	Church History		X
	HIST 5310	U.S. Colonial and Revolutionary History		Amer Rev
	HIST 5311	Nineteenth Century America				Civil War	Gilded Age
	HIST 5316	Social and Intellectual History			Amer Women
	HIST/RLGN 5330	Baptist History				X
	HIST 5331	History of Science and Technology	X
	HIST 5332	Environmental History			X
	HIST 5333	Regional History	Russia	Modern Asia
	HIST 5334	Public History				X
	HIST 5335	Political/Diplomatic History
	HIST/RLGN 5337	Seminar Ancient Near Eastern Backgrounds					X
	HIST 5340	Ethnic and Gender History
	HIST 5341	History of Warfare			US in Iraqi War
	HIST 5342	British History				X
	HIST 5345	Medieval History					Crusades
	HIST 5346	Early Modern Europe		Reformation
	HIST 5347	Modern Europe
HIST 5348
	HIST 5360	Thesis I	Completion of HIST 5301 & 5302, minimum of 24 hours total graduate coursework, and approval from Thesis Approval Committee before enrolling in HIST 5360.
	HIST 5361	Thesis II

HIST 5301 and HIST 5302 must be completed within the first four (4) terms of enrollment (2017/2018 Catalog Requirement).

Students may take a content course more than once for credit if the topic is different. As of the 2017/2018 catalog, students pursuing the non thesis option will need to complete 30 hours of content courses and students pursuing the thesis option will need to complete 24 hours of content courses.

Students enrolled prior to 2017/2018 will need to complete 33/27 hours, respectively.