

FBC Borger Clarence and Mildred Moore Endowed Scholarship

Clarence and Mildred Moore were longtime members of the First Baptist Church of Borger, Texas. They both passed away in 2005. They grew up in Henrietta, Texas. Following Clarence's service in World War II, they moved to Borger where Clarence had a long career as an employee of Phillips Petroleum Company at the Borger refinery.

Clarence was a deacon of the First Baptist Church. He had a servant's heart and