

Jeane and Barbara Browning Endowed Scholarship

Jeane Lee and Barbara Evans Browning married in 1957 and lived in Plainview their entire married life. Jeane has been involved in farming and ranching in Hale and Swisher counties, and Barbara has been a homemaker and manager of their real estate properties in Plainview.

Jeane graduated from Baylor University in 1954 and pursued some post-graduate studies at Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. Barbara graduated from Wayland Baptist College in 1957.

They are devoted parents to their children and spouses—Kathryn and Paul Holloway, Karen and Jim Higgins, Lee and Sandra Browning, and John and Alicia Browning—and are the proud grandparents of 10 grandchildren.

Jeane and Barbara are active members of First Baptist Church, where Jeane is a deacon and both have been Sunday school teachers. A former Plainview City Councilman, Jeane is past president of Knife and Fork Club and is active in the Gideon ministry. Barbara has served in various offices of her PEO chapter, Gamma Delphin Study Club and Gideons' Auxiliary.
