

The Sarah Helton Wiggins Endowed Scholarship

Sarah and her family moved from the Oklahoma Territory to the Canadian, Texas area in 1912. She taught pre-school girls in Sunday school at First Baptist Church, Canadian, for many years. Her Christian example as a mother and wife led her daughter and son-in-law, the Robert Dillmans, to establish the Sarah Helton Wiggins Endowed Scholarship at Wayland Baptist University.