

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT ESTABLISHING

JANUARY, 1976

THE KENNETH EARL CORNEBISE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

After a visit in my office, a long distance telephone call from Greeley, Colorado, on October 3, and a letter dated October 5, this Memorandum of Agreement establishes the Kenneth Earl Cornebise Memorial Scholarship Fund with the first of a series of monthly checks for $45.00. The fund shall be open-ended and gifts will be made to the Fund from time to time throughout the years ahead.

Kenneth Earl Cornebise was born October 23, 1932, near Brownfield, Texas, (Terry County). He was educated in the Lahey, Wellman and Brownfield schools, being especially active in Future Farmers of America activities. He was married on February 16,

Air Force from 1954 to 1957, including one tour of duty in Japan. He was a communications specialist, attaining the rank of Staff Sergeant before his discharge. At the time of his death, he farmed near Meadow, Texas. He was stricken with cancer and after a period of painful illness, passed away on October 5, 1974. These words are copied from a letter from his brother, Alfred E. Cornlbifis

^vHe was not a great man, as the world often counts greatness, but was an excellent example of the 'salt of the earth' spoken of in the Scriptures. A devoted husband and father, he was active in his community—Meadow, Texas—and in his church--The First Baptist Church of Meadow. His life was one of Christianity in action. In the long days of his illness, his faith was always manifest and his understanding founded on the words: 'not my will but Thine be done'. Though Ken did not attend a college or university, he valued education. These considerations have led me to the conclusions that my brother's life revealed the ideals of
