

This workshop is designed to aid young adult students in constructing their first resumes. It will focus largely on the gathering and organization of information before presenting that information in a concise, professional manner. Students should also learn the proper form for resumes, such as correctly formatting their resume, employing professional language, and using appropriate punctuation.

Supplies: Your resume is intended to impress potential employers; therefore, you should print the resume using nicer supplies than you would if you were doing academic or letter writing. Use standard 8 1/2- X 11-inch bond paper, 24 lb. Use a matching envelope when mailing your resume. However, in the computer age, it is unlikely that you will mail your resume. Sime most resumes are submitted through the
