3. Demonstrate an understanding of the basic content of the Old Testament and its main teachings (theological content).

even though those notes are beneficial and helpful to the student. The student is encouraged to read the study notes to help bring clarification to the verses if there is confusion.

2. A discussion board will be set up on Blackboard for students to post thoughtful and reflective (minimum 150 words) responses to various questions. This assignment is called the Student Question on the course outline and calendar. Students must submit their Student Question by 11:59 P.M. on Sunday. Students will need to read everyone's postings and respond to at least one Student Question each week that a Student Response is due. This assignment is called the Student Response on the course outline and calendar. The Student Response (minimum 75 words) is due by 11:59 P.M. on Sunday but the dialogue, and therefore the grade, will be better if students submit their responses earlier in the week. Your Discussion Board grade will be higher if you interact with more students throughout the week with other responses that do not have to meet the minimum word requirement. Your response should be thoughtful and advance the dialogue. Just saying "I agree or disagree with your comment" or an "I think
