Wayland Baptist University considers the university's chapel program to be a vital part of the Wayland experience. Chapel is designed to bring together the

Possible Instances for Applying for Alternative Chapel

1. Be a non-traditional student who works fulltime
2. Be taking majority of courses online
3. Be a primary care giver
4. Be living off campus and do not have Wednesday morning classes
5. Be student teaching or enrolled in practicum
6. Be enrolled in less than twelve hours in a long semester

Other reasons to apply for Alternative Chapel may be allowed depending on the situation. Applications for Alternative Chapel are good for one semester only. By the end of the first week of class each semester, students must apply for Alternative Chapel with the Office of Spiritual Life located in the Brown Family Conference Center. Each request must be accompanied by a justification. No request will be considered after the established deadline. Students shall be notified of their status by the end of the second week of school through the Office of Spiritual Life.

3. Students who incur more than three absences in a given semester will not receive credit for chapel. Students will have the opportunity to make up two absences by contacting the Office of Spiritual Life. Students are responsible for making sure they have fulfilled all requirements for attendance and can check the records of attendance kept in the Office of Spiritual Life. If a student feels that an error has been made, he/she has until the last day of classes to question the accuracy of the records.
