

registration. Policy 1.8.1 also prohibits pay inducements including gratuities, favor, discounts, entertainment, hospitality, loans, transportation, lodging, meals or other items with a monetary value greater than a de minimis amount to any individual or entity, including third party lead generators or marketing forms. This prohibition does not apply to salaries paid to employees; fees paid to contractors that comply with all applicable laws for securing enrollments of students or obtaining access to educational assistance; or scholarships, grants and tuition reductions provided by the University.

Contact for Interpretation: Vice President of External Campuses

---

This policy statement supersedes all previous policy statements on this subject.

Revisions:

- 03/09/2022 Inception