Students and employees should report any criminal offense for the purpose of making timely warning notices (Crime Alerts) and annual statistical disclosure to the WBUPD or external campus executive director/campus dean. Although statistical information is requested annually from law enforcement agencies with jurisdiction at the WBU campuses and other owned and controlled property, the WBUPD also requests notification of the incident for follow-up and documentation purposes. Non-emergencies may be reported to the WBUPD or external campus executive director/campus dean.
